

Final Exam Review

PSYC 2301-FA13

- 1) What is the DSM V?
- 2) How can you informally assess whether a behavior is normal or abnormal? (the 5 criteria listed on the board)
- 3) What were the 4 personality disorders discussed in class and their symptoms.
- 4) What is MPD/DID? How does MPD differ from schizophrenia?
- 5) What do 95% of all those diagnosed with MPD have in common?
- 6) What is a "nervous breakdown" ?
- 7) What are the signs/symptoms of Panic Disorder?
- 8) Everyone has minor, irrational fears called phobias. Know the names and symptoms of the common phobias discussed in class.
- 9) What are obsessions? What are compulsions? What are some common elements of OCD?
- 10) How are Psychotic Disorders different from Neurotic Disorders?
- 11) What are some common symptoms found in psychotic disorders?
- 12) Know the signs/symptoms and onset of chronic schizophrenia.
- 13) BONUS MATERIAL: Read in your book about Alzheimer's Disease, Eating disorders, Wilhelm Wundt, Little Albert, Cognitive Therapy & Jean Piaget's Developmental Stages, Stanley Milgram's experiment on obedience & cognitive therapy.

Please remember that part of your final exam is cumulative. You may want to skim over the first three exam reviews.